The long awaited end is now upon us. High School is nothing but a mere memory. A memory of what was, and what never will be again. Over these years many valuable lessons were learned, who to trust, who to rely on, and that person is yourself. You are all you will have after you graduate. We are closing one door and opening thousands. Which one to success? Which one to failure? I am glad that it is over. I haven't enjoyed my stay at Saugus High, and I doubt that I am the only one. There were good times and some bad, times we laughed and times we cried. I won't ever forget friends or enemies, you all helped me become what I am today. IH+SD JM, CD, DP, LP, JD, +D

One day I will wallow in nostalgia for this school, these people, this time. That day will be when I no longer remember high school. This is the real world: some of it I love and some I don't. I give salutes to the art room; co9. I'll miss stinky cheese, the lunch bunch, solitude in the library. Gratitude for a free education, and for some first rate teachers. Best of all, I was given perspective at SHS. Thank you for that. I regret nothing.

Why are entire years strewn on the cutting room floor of memory? There were road trips and layout with Meg, slow runs with Liz, Singing lessons with Gen, Amesbury trips with Jamie, Kathleen cracking me up in English, Mornings in the library with Dwyer, biology mishaps with Jackie, talking hockey and control-k with Matt, and marathon conversations with Dan. The things that I will remember most at Saugus High School are the friends that I have made. They made these 4 years go by so quickly and I will miss them when we all go our separate ways. One of the best friends that I made was Karlene Conway and I miss her a lot but she gave me a very good friend that has helped me open the doors to many things. I consider her one of my best friends at this school. Laurie Smith is the person I speak of. I will miss my other friends as well. Farewell Laurie S. Chrissy M. Jenn D. BW. CL. AT. MB.
